

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Four roads to lose access to SR 37 on or after July 21

West side access will be the Sample Road and Liberty Church interchanges

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (July 16, 2018) – Access to SR 37 will be eliminated on or after Saturday, July 21 for four roads west of the highway.

The access point for Turkey Tracks west, located approximately one mile south of the Liberty Church interchange, will close on or after July 21. Access to both northbound and southbound SR 37 will be the Liberty Church interchange.

The access point for Paragon Road (Pine Blvd.) will close on or after July 21. Access to both northbound and southbound SR 37 will be the Liberty Church interchange.

Further south, the access points at Burma Road and Sylvan Lane will close on or after July 21. Access to both northbound and southbound SR 37 will be via the west side access road to Simpson Chapel Road to the Sample Road interchange.

The west side access road is still under construction, and portions of the road from the connection at Burma Road to Crossover Road will be gravel. This is a temporary condition and the gravel roadway should be used. Final paving will occur soon.
